PICTURE KWIZZ

1. WHO IS this stylishly dressed chap? Today he plays in one of the world's top Heavy Metal bands, although this particular picture was taken back in the days when he was a mere 'Rising' Star . . .

2. WHO'S THIS man and why is he so annoyed with his metal-headed companion?

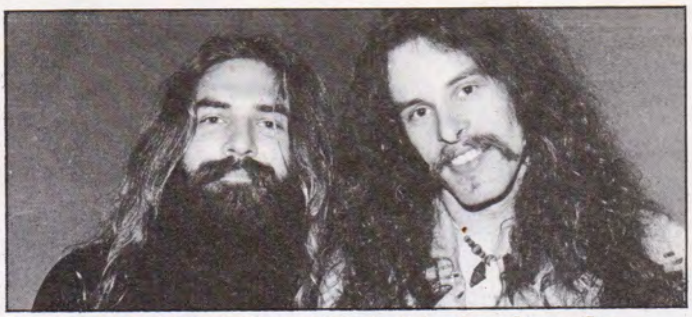
3. FORGET GENE Simmons, Gary Glitter, Wrathchild et al, Quay Lewd was the frontman with the very best taste in platform boots! What is this geezer's real name and of which band is he a member?

4. AN EARLY line-up of an eternally middle-league Welsh HM band. Name 'em.

5. A FEW years back this lot recorded a fine album name of 'Narita' and at one stage looked set to break big both in Britain and worldwide. Can you name the band and also remember the monicker of their lead singer (far left) who was later replaced by a guy called Rhett Forrester?

6. THE GREY-haired geek on the right split and took it off long before the other members decided to follow in the same fashion. Who is he and what are we talking about?

7. DIFFICULT TO believe it may be, but this foolish-looking Gene Simmons impersonator on the right is arguably HM's number one sex symbol. Who is he?



8. LOTSA HAIR and stubble in his shot from the mid-Seventies. You'll probably be able to recognise the moustachio'd madman on the right, but who's his bewiskered buddy on the left?

9. EX–PM Jim Callaghan and Jimmy Savile are seated in the background, but who's the lunatic on the bass?

10. This shaven-headed superstar is renowned for his wild taste in eccentric hats. Name him and the band he plays in (clue: he's in the same outfit as the chap in question 9).

11. THESE FIVE made-up one of Britain's first Glam Rock bands. Name the group and their singer, who now fronts a band called Chequered Past.

12. GUNNING FOR glory, what famous rock film is this still taken from?

13. MORE IMPECCABLE dress sense! The guy on the left used to be regarded as rock's most lunatic drummer. Do you recognise him?

14. PAUL SUTER eat your heart out! This open-mouthed beauty fronted a cult American Punk/ Metal group of the mid-seventies. Who is she and what was the name of the band?

15. FINALLY, AND most difficult of all – what is the connection between these four clean-cut, handsome young lads and the debauched scene on our centrespread? You'll never guess . . .

ANSWERS

1. Jimmy Bain, bass player with Dio. The photo was taken when he was a member of Rainbow ('Rainbow Rising', geddit?)
2. Dennis De Young of Styx, pictured here during an emotion-charged moment in the band's 'Kilroy' stage show.
3. Fee Waybill of the Tubes.
4. Tony Bourge, Steve Williams and Burke Shelley of Budgie.
5. Riot. Their lead singer was Guy Speranza.
6. Peter Criss, the ex-Kiss drummer who took off his make-up years before the rest of 'em.
7. David Coverdale
8. Ted Nugent (right) and Artemus Pyle of Lynyrd Skynrd.
9. Jim Lea of Slade.
10. Dave Hill of Slade.
11. Silverhead was the band; Michael Des Barres is the singer.
12. Led Zeppelin's 'The Song Remains The Same'.
13. Keith Moon
14. Niagara of Destroy All Monsters.
15. The clean-cut chaps used to play under the monicker of The Wasps, an obscure Mod band of the late Seventies. Our centerspread star Blackie Lawless is, of course, the leader of Sleaze Metal supremos W.A.S.P . . .

WECLOME TO Kerristmas Kwizz Kerrang!, a bold new brain-teasin' publication designed to test the extent of your knowledge of rock music.

Back in the regular, fortnightly editions of Kerrang!, we're always aware of how popular our Kwizzes, Kompetitions and Kerrosswords are with you, the reader. Unfortunately, however, as we've always got more than enough material to fill these issues, we can never seem to find the space to fit in these puzzles on a regular basis.

So – what better solution to the problem than to put together a whole magazine of mind-mincing questions, a problem-packed publication designed to lend awesome excitement and impeccable interest to even the most boring Kerristmas!

All the Kwizzes, Kerrosswords and Rockagrams in this issue were compiled by SUE BUCKLEY. I think she's done a great job, particularly since I only gave her a week to get all the questions together! Take a bow, Sue.

If this issue is a success, there's a good chance that another edition of Kwizz Kerrang! could hit the streets in the New Year. So, obviously, I'd like to hear what YOU think about this particular publication. How do you think it could be improved? What other kinds of puzzles do you think we could include? Or are you so disgusted by it you don't think it's worth the paper it's printed on?

Either way, please let me know at this address: Kwizz Kerrang!, 40 Long Acre, London WC2.

In the meantime, I'll see you again in the regular issues of Kerrang!, and (I hope) in Extra Kerrang! number three, on sale November 22 and featuring the eternally wonderful ZZ TOP on the cover.

GUITARIST TONY Iommi curses the problems caused by long-sleeved stagewear . . . and also provides a clue for question 20

WAXING LYRICALLY

HEAVY METAL'S lyrics are often underrated, playing second fiddle to the axe work or the crashing beat. It's such a shame, because there are some fine wordsmiths out there. In an attempt to put lyrics back on the map, this KWIZZ is all about the words.

Your score:
0 – 5 Do you never read the sleeve notes?
6 – 15 Reasonably lyrical
16 – 20 Good. Ring* Kerrang! *for a job.

1. According to the Tygers of Pan Tang, what is 'such a beautiful sight'?

2. . . . And who, according to Michael Schenker, 'still looks quite young and the world has space for her'?

3. What was Ian Gillan doing when he hoped 'you would hear inside my voice of sorrow, that it motivates you to make a better tomorrow'?

4. Which band were 'risin' up, back on the street'?

5. Which Judas Priest song begins with the lines:
'One life I'm gonna live it up/I'm takin' flight I said I'll never get enough'?

6. Which band, in which song, liked 'girls who wear high heels, they boogie everywhere, anytime'?

7. Whom did the Guess Who warn:
'Don't come hangin' round my door/I don't wanna see your face no more'?

8. From which song do these lyrics come:
'You know me, evil eye/You know me, prepared to die'?

9. Blackfoot recommend you to 'run for your life out of fear', but from where?

LYNYRD SKYNYRD'S Ronnie Van Zant: can you name the band's most celebrated song? (see question 20)

10. Which song ends with the threat: 'I'm coming back, I will return/And I'll possess your body and I'll make you burn'?

11. Who exhorted us to 'stand and be counted, for what you are about to receive'?

12. According to the Stones (and Smokey R), where was 'most every taxi that you flag' going to?

13. The Rods complained that 'You Keep Me Hangin On'. But who wrote that memorable ditty?

14. When would Diamond Head 'taste the wine of their joy, through the delirium of a tortured mind'?

15. Who were the two American kids, 'growing up in the heartland'?

16. In which very famous song did 'she' say 'love, lord above, now you're trying to trick me in love'?

17. In an equally very famous song, something flew sideways through time. What was it?

18. Name the song which opens with the lines:
'I just received a message from my mother/She asked me nicely not to bring the girl back home'.

19. In which song do the Scorpions beg us 'put your hands in the air, so I can see you are there'?

20. Name this song: 'If I leave here tomorrow, will you still remember me'?
